Council in pledge on problem of horses

COUNCIL chiefs have pledged to take action on stray horses plaguing Dudley's streets.

Their action plan comes in the wake of a successful trial and has seen police rounding up animals in the borough.

It was introduced following a surge in calls from the public about horses causing problems in streets and roaming around parks.

Around 120 horses have been collected by police and taken outside of the borough to be rehomed since the scheme began.

The council says following its success, it will continue to impound in partnership with the police and bailiffs.

Residents will still be able to report stray horse sightings to the council and action will be taken to remove them if they are close to the road.

Work will also be undertaken to reduce the number of animals using land and nature reserves for illegal grazing.

Councillor Judy Foster, who represents the Brockmoor and Pensnett ward which has been one of the worst affected areas for stray horses, said: "I'm pleased with the work that is being done and the feedback I have got from residents is the situation is improving but there are still problems."

"My only disappointment is that it took so long."

Police look for rucksack

Detectives investigating the murders of retired teacher Betty Yates and The Rev John Suddards are searching for a rucksack and mobile phone.

Police believe the items may be vital to their investigations and may be on farmland in the South East. They are appealing to farmers to check their property.

Stephen Farrow, aged 47, of no fixed address, has been charged with the murder of Mr Suddards of Thornbury, and Mrs Yates, from Bewdley.

MURDER PROBE AS BODY FOUND

DETECTIVES were this week probing a suspected murder after a man was found dead at a flat in Tividale. A block of flats was cordoned off following the death of the 60-year-old, while two men were quizzed by detectives on suspicion of murder.

Police and paramedics were called to the flat at 11.50pm on Monday march 5.

The man was pronounced dead at the scene in Baldwin Close. As The Chronicle went to press, he had not yet been formally identified.

West Midlands Ambulance service spokesman Steve Parry said an ambulance and rapid response vehicle were called to the scene by police, but were not required.

The extent or nature of the victim's injuries are not yet known and a post mortem was due to be held.

Police spokesman Lee Page said officers have not yet recovered any weapons from the scene.

Forensics officers were scouring the ground-floor flat for clues while people living in the cul-de-sac have been speaking of their shock.

Mother-of-two Sharon Chambers, aged 31, said: "I am absolutely shocked."

"I didn't hear anything last night at all. I woke up this morning and saw the police but I have no idea what happened."

Her neighbour, retired Stephen Watt, 61, who has lived in the road 32 years, said: "I had the shock of my life when I came out this morning and saw the police."

by Dave Lumb & Naomi Dunning

"I never heard a thing last night."

Pensioner Robert Oliver, a grandfather of six, added: "This is normally a quiet area, it's a nice little cul-de-sac. We never have any trouble."

"This is the first bit of drama there has ever been. It's terrible. When we got up this morning we guessed it was something serious."

Oldbury councillor Mahboob Hussain, whose ward covers Baldwin Close, said: "This is a very quiet area. We don't get many serious incidents in this area, just the occasional report of anti-social behaviour."

Shocking

"It is very shocking for any community to have something like this happen, and we just have to hope that if any criminal activity has taken place the culprits are caught."

"I will be asking police to keep me up-to-date with what is happening."

Two men, aged 46 and 50, have been arrested on suspicion of murder and are currently in custody helping detectives with their inquiries.

Any witnesses or anyone with who has information about the incident is asked to call Force CID at Harborne on 101.

School choirs raise the notes for charity

Young singers from Dawley Brook Primary School, in Kingswinford perform at Dudley Concert Hall

AROUND 700 schoolchildren used the right notes to raise the notes in Dudley Concert Hall during a choir festival for charity.

Pupils from 22 primary schools across the borough took part in Vivo 2 to raise money for Compton Hospice in Wolverhampton. It was organised by Jesson's CE Primary School.

There were three performances during the day and evening. The schoolchildren, who ranged from seven to 11, were joined by rock choir Fusion.

There were performances from Jesson's Jubilate and Vocalize choirs. Also performing was the boys' street dance group Step4. Music teacher David Jackson said the event had been a great success.

"It has been fantastic. The children really enjoyed performing and it has been really good for them to perform on stage. It is great experience for them," he added.

Katie Love, schools liaison at Compton Hospice, said: "We simply couldn't continue our vital work, supporting patients, without the help and generosity of our community."

"We can't thank Jesson's school enough for their time, effort and enthusiasm in staging Vivo 2 and raising money for our charity."

Blowers Green Primary School, on Blowers Green Road, and Dawley Brook Primary, on Dubarry Avenue, Kingswinford, were among the schools taking part.

Helix firm is moving to a new location

A BUSINESS park which was once home to the historic Helix stationery factory is going on the market - as staff on the site prepare to move to a new home.

The globally-renowned stationery company closed down all of its production at the plant in Lye, Stourbridge, around seven years ago - retaining only an office and warehousing space. Helix entered administration in January with its future looking uncertain.

However, French based stationery group Maped secured its future when it bought the firm for an undisclosed sum last month. The remaining 38-staff on site are due to leave the Engine Lane plant within the next few weeks for new premises.

Developer Mountcity Group said it was actively seeking tenants for the seven-acre site.

Commercial property agents Bulleys is acting on behalf of the developer to find prospective firms wanting to take over at the site.

Mountcity Investments director Ken Atkinson said: "Our agents Bulleys will be remarketing the site."

Helix managing director Mike Pell said a deal was nearly done to relocate to new "flagship" premises within a few miles of the present factory.

Fraud case man bailed

THE FORMER treasurer of a Stourbridge church and a religious charity appeared in court facing charges over an alleged £500,000 fraud.

Stephen John Methuen, aged 56, of Smalman Close, Wordsley, faces 17 charges, covering the time when he was treasurer of Ambleside Christian Centre and the Christian International Relief Mission between 2003 and 2009. Dudley magistrates heard that these charges had to be heard at crown court. Methuen was bailed until May 25.

Towns 'need their own identities'

HIGH Streets across the region need to create their own identity to survive and offer alternatives to major retail sites such as Dudley's Merry Hill shopping centre, it has been claimed.

The incoming president of the Black Country Chamber of Commerce made the comments in light of the high numbers of empty shops in town centres.

Cradley Heath solicitor Paul Bennett, who will take up the post in April, says each town needs to develop its own identity.

He is also encouraging independent retailers to take up shop space. "I think the challenge for Dudley Council and other councils is how to ensure there is an attractive proposition in some of those other areas such as Dudley, Walsall, Wolverhampton and West Bromwich," he said. "The key is going to be for those other areas to develop their own culture and target market."

Midland high streets are facing tough times according to rankings compiled for accountancy firm PricewaterhouseCoopers by the Local Data Company.

Dudley and West Bromwich were named the two worst medium-sized towns in the country with 29 per cent and 28 per cent of shops empty respectively. Wolverhampton and Walsall are fifth and seventh in the top 10 large towns and cities, with 27.3 per cent and 26.9 per cent of shops vacant. Mr Bennett, who is a senior partner at George Green Solicitors and is Dudley chamber president, said lower cost rates would only be a short-term answer.

"There are some businesses who do require some help to get them off the ground but we have to think about long-term sustainability."

Firms fined as worker burned by electric cable

Two firms have been fined after a demolition worker was engulfed in flames when he cut through a live 11,000-volt cable at an electricity substation while working in a foundry.

Gould Singleton Architects Ltd, Halesowen, and DSM Demolition Ltd, Birmingham, have been ordered to pay thousands of pounds by Worcester Crown Court. They were prosecuted by the Health and Safety Executive following the incident which took place at an electricity substation in Worcester on July 14 2006.

The court heard DSM Demolition had been demolishing a foundry in Wainwright Road, when 35-year-old employee Lee Harris was told to cut through a cable.

It was connected to a switching unit on a substation which was still live. Mr Harris was engulfed in flames and suffered 20 per cent burns. He has been left with permanent disabilities and required skin grafts.

Checks

The court was told Gould Singleton Architects had told DSM Demolition all services to the site had been terminated. But DSM should have checked.

DSM Demolition Ltd, of Arden Road, Birmingham, was found guilty on September 26, 2011 of breaching Section 2(1) of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act.

The company was fined £40,000 and ordered to pay £100,000 costs by Worcester Crown Court.

Gould Singleton Architects Ltd, of Whitehall Road, Halesowen, pleaded guilty to breaching Section 3(1) of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 and Regulation 15(3)(e) of the Construction (Design and Management) Regulations 1994. The company was fined £20,000 and ordered to pay £20,872 costs.

Speaking after the case, HSE inspector Tariq Khan said, neither of the firms made adequate checks.

£500,000 project complete

Vic Smallshire unveils the completed £500,000 project featuring new artwork and new pathways at the Dudley Canal Trust Blowers Green Junction

A MAJOR £500,000 improvement project to a stretch of the historic Dudley canal has been officially unveiled after two years of work.

The project has seen four and a half miles of canal towpath improved with two miles of the worst part resurfaced. Undergrowth has also been cleared along the Dudley No 2 Canal, which runs from Blowers Green to Gosty Tunnel, exposing more of the special geological features, once used as a teaching resource by Birmingham University.

Improvements have also been made to 10 accesses along the canal as well as the installation of a new one.

Centre is told to improve services

A CENTRE for adults with learning disabilities in Stourbridge has been ordered to improve by health inspectors.

The Care Quality Commission visited the Ridge Hill Centre, Brierley Hill Road which has residents aged between 18 and 65.

It raised concerns about whether people were receiving care that met their needs and supported their rights. Inspectors reported that care plans did not always address a patient's full needs.

They called for improvements to be made. But centre bosses said it had already made changes.

The visit was part of a programme to review learning disability services and assess whether patients receive appropriate care and support, and whether they are protected from abuse.

The review included observing how people were cared for, talking to patients, relatives, staff at the centre and other professionals, looking at patients records and care plans and checking recording systems.

The Black Country Partnership NHS Foundation Trust's associate chief operating officer, Lesley Writtle, said: "We have already made improvements."

£80 fine for having drug

A WORDSLEY man has been fined £80 for possessing cannabis worth about £10. Jamie Power, aged 35, of Marmalade Way, was also ordered to pay £85 costs, the £34 for testing the drug and a £15 victim surcharge. He admitted possessing the drug at Wordsley on December 8.

Mrs Maxine Jarrousse-Jones, prosecuting, told Dudley magistrates that, as police went to speak to Power in Wordsley, they saw him push something up his sleeve. Mr Michael Davies, defending, said Power thought it may not be genuine.

Battle for station is dropped

CAMPAIGNERS have admitted defeat in their bid to force court action over the decision to axe Halesowen Fire Station and one of two 24-hour crews in the area.

They claimed they would have struggled to find legal costs of up to £60,000 to fund the planned judicial review.

Under plans by West Midlands Fire Service one of the area's two 24-hour fire crews will be axed and Halesowen Fire Station will shut on March 31. The fire service has launched a plan to build a new station covering both Halesowen and Cradley Heath.

West Midlands Fire Authority chairman, Councillor John Edwards, said he was pleased the process could now continue unhindered.

Businessman Tony Billingham, who owns the Carlton Care group, and Halesowen and Rowley Regis MP James Morris led the campaign and helped raise £10,000 for legal fees.

Mr Billingham, chairman of the campaigners' community action group, said: "It has become clear that we would struggle to raise enough money, quickly enough, to take the case all the way."

Dog walker handed fine

A DOG walker has been penalised more than £400 for failing to clean up after his pet in a Dudley park.

Aaron Perry, aged 18, was seen allowing his dog to foul in Woodside Park, Holly Hall, Netherton in July last year.

But Perry, of Baptist End Road, failed to pay a £50 fixed penalty fine and ignored council reminders.

Dudley magistrates fined him £100 and ordered him to pay costs of £295 as well as a £15 victim surcharge, although he failed to appear in court on February 23.

Project grant

A £750 grant from the West Midlands Police Authority will help Asian women in Dudley to combat crime.

The Humaraa project, in Lye, plans to hold an awareness raising event for local Asian women.

Maimoona Ramzan of Humaraa, said: "We want to tackle the problem of Asian women who worry about going out alone."

MP vows to keep pressure on fire bosses

HALESOWEN MP James Morris has vowed to keep up the pressure on fire bosses to restore and maintain services in the area.

The passionate plea came after a campaign group pulled out of a bid to take the axing of Halesowen Fire Station and its 24-hour fire crew to a judicial review.

Mr Morris, who also represents Rowley Regis, said the campaign had brought the community together to fight for the cause.

But they could not stump up the mounting legal costs of around £60,000 to take it to the High Court. "We are obviously disappointed that, despite the strong legal advice saying that the decision to cut fire protection locally was not taken legally, we have not been able to take our case all the way to court to ask for the decision to be overturned," said the Conservative MP.

Concessions

"This campaign has brought large sections of the community together and I am pleased that we have been able to gain some concessions that looked unlikely when we began.

"We will continue to argue for our area to be given the level of fire service that it needs and will argue strongly for the restoration of the fire engine if it does turn out that the fire service's budgetary position is not as dire as they had indicated when they took this decision."

West Midlands Fire Authority chairman, Sandwell Councillor John Edwards said the possible judicial review would have been "time consuming" and expensive.

He added: "I'm pleased there will be no delay in the process for the local community to have a new merged facility for Cradley Heath and Halesowen."

West Midlands Fire Service chiefs say they have to find savings of up to £30 million by 2014 due to government cuts.

Bosses have revealed plans to build a new fire station covering both town in the future.

They have organised sessions offering people the chance to see illustrations of what the new station could look like.

The first is on March 8 between 5pm to 8pm at Lutley Community Centre in Halesowen.

A second session will be held on March 10 from 11am until 2pm at Reddall Hill Primary School in Cradley Heath.

Fresh deal squares things up for Helix instruments

For most youngsters it was a protractor, two set squares and a ruler in a metal tin. Or if you were really flash, the Helix Torch maths set, with its funky orange plastic case and shiny silver compass, would really set you apart.

by David Lumb

For children of the 1970s, the ubiquitous Helix school sets were the classroom equivalent of block-paved driveways or the latest car registration plate. They symbolised your place in the school pecking order.

The one consolation of the September return to school was the opportunity to show all your friends your new Helix maths set. For the generations of youngsters who have grown up with Helix stationery products, the idea of the company disappearing seems hard to imagine.

Yet a few weeks ago, when the Black Country stationery firm went into administration, its future looked uncertain.

It has now been saved by a rival French company, and the well-known brand is ready to prove its heart remains firmly in the Black Country.

Helix, which has been at its factory in Lye near Stourbridge for more than 50 years, once employed about 600 workers.

However, following the buyout earlier this month by Maped, its bosses have decided to move from the Engine Lane plant. Managing director Mike Pell said the deal is nearly done to relocate to new "flagship" premises within a few miles of the present factory. He said all 38 staff will be moving to the site within the next six to 10 weeks.

While there are no definite plans for increasing the size of the workforce at this stage, the firm says some could be taken on if growth forecasts are correct over the coming months.

Households

"It is good for the area that a well-known brand like Helix that has grown up in most households is retaining its links with the region," said Mr Pell.

"Of course there is a certain amount of uncertainty for any employees during the course of administration. But personally I'm delighted that we have been able to secure the jobs for them and their families."

Helix started life as the Universal Woodworking Company established by the Lawson family in Birmingham.

Centre marks 40th anniversary

A DAY centre in Dudley has celebrated its 40th anniversary with a visit from the mayor.

Staff and regular visitors arrived to mark the milestone at Queens Cross Network, Wellington Road.

The centre, which opened in February 1972, helps adults with physical or sensory disabilities. Now known as Queens Cross Network, it is Dudley borough's centre for independent living for the disabled. It was modernised last year.

Career advice for child carers

WORCESTERSHIRE County Council is organising an event to give career advice to anyone thinking of working with children.

The council's workforce development team is organising the "Every Child Matters" careers fair on March 31 from 10am to 2pm at County Hall, Worcester.

Colleges, training providers and childcare agencies will be there to give advice about the variety of careers available, qualifications, apprenticeships and training.

Teenage gang in centre robbery

A MAN was robbed of his mobile phone and £10 by teenagers who threatened him in Stourbridge town centre.

The 23-year-old victim was walking along Coventry Street, near the Duke William pub, when the gang surrounded and threatened to stab him.

The gang took his LG Touch phone and cash at around 7.20pm on Wednesday.

BLACK Country brewery Holden's has launched its first new beer of the year.

The independent brewery, which has been brewing at Woodseton since 1915, has a chain of 20 pubs and brews 50,000 pints a week.

THE Royal Mail is to freeze the price of Christmas stamps for some pensioners and benefits claimants. So far, so good. Now, how about making it free for anyone under 12 to post a thank-you letter?

REJOICE, for the Olympics Minister Hugh Robertson says he is "increasingly confident" the 2012 Games will come in under the £9.3 billion budget.

You couldn't make it up. Let's we forget, the original estimate for these 16 days of running, jumping and drug-test dodging was £2.4 billion. Then it rose to £3.3 billion. As the sun rises, so does the Olympics budget. The £9.3 billion figure is merely the latest in a long line of predictions based more on hope than likelihood.

Inflate the budget often enough and eventually, the Games were bound to come in "under budget". Smoke and mirrors.

DAMMIT, we are not getting outraged enough about old people being patronised.

A report by a committee of charity bosses and NHS bigwigs declares that residents of care homes being referred to as "dear" or "chuck" without their permission should be regarded as severely as racist or sexist abuse.

This is a tall order. By now, most people get angry and embarrassed to hear the sort of racial terms which were in common use 50 years ago. We have learned to be outraged.

But could we, or should we, work up the same outrage over the issue of how old people are addressed by care workers? Is there really any similarity between calling an old lady "chuck" and calling a black person by the N-word?

I can't see it. Most old folk in care homes are desperately glad of any human contact. And a kind word is a kind word, even if it has not been officially approved by the guardians of political correctness.

Call for more to join theatre rescue

MORE than 500 people have now signed a petition in the battle to rescue a Dudley theatre, which has been derelict for several years, from the bulldozers.

The empty Dudley Hippodrome stands at the bottom of Castle Hill near Dudley Zoo and The Station Hotel.

The area has been earmarked by Dudley Council for a multi-million pound regeneration scheme.

But council bosses plan to demolish the theatre and former bingo hall as there has been no interest in anyone taking the building on.

Fight

Campaigners now want more people to join them for the last ditch fight to save the hippodrome from being demolished and lost for ever.

Former college lecturer Geoff Fitzpatrick has been one of those leading the campaign.

"We have reached at least 500 signatures on the petition which is great and shows the support to save the Hippodrome," he said.

"We are really looking for people to help us now so we can form a committee. We have also been trying to look at ways of starting up a trust," he added.

But council leader Councillor Les Jones said it had "already failed once" as a theatre and added the nearby Dudley Concert Hall was now the town's main entertainment venue. He added it may be torn down to make way for a museum or community centre.

Demand for urgent action on rubbish tip

CAMPAIGNERS say urgent action is needed to force a clear-up of a 30ft high rubbish pile in Brierley Hill. They claim that the rubbish which has been building up on the site of Refuse Derived Fuel Ltd, Moor Street, is beginning to smell.

Campaign to reopen shut loos

CAMPAIGNERS are calling for public toilets in Nether-ton to be reopened amid fears it will hit the town's retailers.

Councillor Qadar Zada has started a petition to get the council to rethink its decision.

He says many residents are worried about the lack of public toilets, and he believes it will deter people from visiting the town.

The toilet block in Halesowen Road was one of a number in the Dudley borough shut by the council as part of cost-cutting plans.

Councillor Zada said: "I am worried it is putting people's dignity at risk."

"Although the council says people can use toilets in shops and cafes, the owners are not going to be very happy with people coming in just to use toilets. A petition has been started because we want the council to reopen the toilets."

Among the other sites closed are The Cross in Kingswinford and Cottage Street in Brierley Hill. The move left five toilet blocks in town centres in the borough.

The council does not have a statutory responsibility to provide public toilets.

Neighbours are demanding a strong response from Environment Agency bosses.

But officials said they are still analysing the situation and have not set a date for any further action to be taken. Agency workers were at the site last month to gain evidence of the firm's practices.

The firm shreds and dries solid waste, turning the household rubbish and industrial refuse into fuel.

Brierley Hill ward councillor Rachel Harris called for the firm to show some good will to residents. "The situation has dragged on more than a bit," she said.

"If the company is serious about remaining about trading and as a neighbour in Brierley Hill they should be doing something to show people that they are seriously listening," she said.

Serious

"The Environment Agency are quite serious about the case but this takes time."

Resident Stef Andrews, who lives in Bague Walk with her two-year-old daughter Maddie, said: "We really need something doing on this now. The rubbish is beginning to smell and it will get worse in summer."

Environment Agency spokesman Catherine Ellis said: "The situation at the Refuse Derived Fuel Ltd site is completely unacceptable and locals are being made to suffer by the poor way that the site is being run. We have been very clear with the company about what they need to do."

Refuse Derived Fuel Ltd declined to comment.

Band setting off for UK tour

A DANCE-ROCK band formed online is preparing to hit the road at venues nationwide, including Wolverhampton.

Shatter Effect formed last April after meeting through an online music forum.

The five-piece from across the region has already supported Brit Award winner Ed Sheeran and The Futureheads at Cloud 9 Festival in Cheshire.

The group consists of singer Rebecca

Davies, aged 28, from Kingswinford, guitarist Robin Davies, 25, from Lower Gornal, guitarist Daryl Gardner, 22, from Kingswinford, bassist Ed Johan Bol, 30, from Shifnal and drummer Ricky Hill, 28, from Wolverhampton.

Their Wolverhampton dates include the Slade Rooms on April 7, the Jagged Rock Lounge on April 14 and The Varsity on April 28.

Man sent to prison for phone stun gun

A MAN who received a stun gun - disguised as a mobile phone - as a holiday gift from his ex-girlfriend has been jailed for 21 months.

Christopher Steven Loveridge, told Wolverhampton Crown Court his ex-girlfriend had brought it back from Thailand for him.

The 25-year-old said it was only when police raided his home in Spencer Road, Coseley on November 11 looking for the high voltage device he realised it was illegal.

Mr Howard Searle prosecuting, told the court Loveridge had immediately retrieved the device which he had kept inside a coat at the top of a wardrobe and handed it to police.

Loveridge had previously pleaded guilty to possessing a prohibited weapon.

Mr Patrick Currie, defending, asked the judge to view this case as an exception and not sentence Loveridge to the statutory five year jail sentence for the offence. He highlighted the weapon had not been used, that it had not been taken into a public place, he did not know it was illegal and that Loveridge had not bought the item himself.

Members can attend for £2 and non-members for £3. The price includes refreshments.

Warden's quad bike is stolen

A CANCER sufferer has had his quad bike stolen.

Keen rider Mike Zerafa, aged 72, used the £4,500 Quadzilla bike to get around Kinver.

He also travelled around as one of the area's designated tree wardens helping to conserve nearby woods.

But the grandfather-of-four was stunned to discover his garage at his home, in Huntsmans Walk, had been broken into and the bike stolen.

Mr Zerafa was diagnosed with lung cancer last March, but his condition has not stopped him maintaining the vehicle.

"They do not think about what they are doing to people - it is annoying to me that they think they can do this," he said.

"I think they believe that people will be able to get the money back for these things through insurance but I will be lucky to get £1,000 back so it basically means my riding days are over because I can't replace it. My three-year-old grand-daughter Libby used to like sitting on it with me."

The model was a Quadzilla 500SE. Anyone with information is asked to call police on 0300 1234455 or 101.

Firm grabs F1 contract

A STOURBRIDGE manufacturing firm has won its first contract with a top Formula One motor racing team.

Surface improvement and degreasing specialists Midland Debur and Finish, of Lye Valley Industrial Estate, will degrease the gearbox casings for the team, the name of which they are unable to reveal.

Midland Debur, which employs eight, joined forces with them at the end of last year and have degreased seven gearbox casings to date. Managing director Chris Arrowsmith, said: "We do a lot of automotive work anyway, so the next step was moving into Formula One."

Child hearing

AN INQUEST has opened on the sudden death of a boy from Halesowen.

Ayaan Kamran Miah Adams, aged 14 months, died at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital on February 20.

The matter was adjourned to a date to be fixed to await reports.

Senior college worker, Alex, dies aged 45

Alex Speed, aged 45

A SENIOR employee at Stourbridge College has died from heart disease aged 45.

Alex Speed, who leaves a wife and two young sons, had worked at Stourbridge College since 2008.

His colleagues have been left shocked by his sudden death as Mr Speed had appeared fit and active.

They said the computer systems expert, from Harborne, had left a lasting legacy at the college, where he was the IT and interactive learning technology director.

He was part of the senior management team based at the Hagley Road Centre.

Born in Newcastle, he had previously worked in Africa and the Far East and had met his wife, Carole while working at Montana Wines in New Zealand.

Family

He had travelled extensively and worked in a variety of IT roles before returning to the UK to settle down with his family.

Mr Speed joined the college in 2008 and made many improvements to its IT systems including ensuring wireless facilities were available and introducing an online booking and paying programme for courses.

During his time at the college, he also set up a system to allow the college to make calls across the internet, saving almost £600,000 in telephone line rentals.

His friend and colleague, Mags Winthrop, said today: "Alex achieved so much and had such a positive impact on the working lives of all staff, teaching and support teams alike and the student experience is vastly improved. "He had a thirst for life, a passion for work and was committed to his family."

"Most of all he was positive and upbeat, he had a great sense of humour and he has left a legacy at Stourbridge College."

Professionally

"He will be missed both personally and professionally."

Mr Speed died on February 12. His funeral was held last week at St Peter's Church, Old Church Road, Harborne.

Three churches are under threat of being closed down

Three historic churches in Dudley town centre - including the landmark Bottom Church - will close within five years unless urgent action is taken, church leaders are warning.

by Charlotte Cross

The announcement comes after an investigation into the financial health of the churches.

The Church of St Edmund, or "Bottom Church", Castle Street, St James the Great in Eve Hill in and St John's, Kates Hill have all been on red alert for 12 months but have failed to make the necessary moves to stay open.

Leaders at the Diocese of Worcester today admitted continuing the three buildings into the future was "unviable".

The investigation into the finances of all seven of the churches in the Dudley town centre group, which it was claimed have been "living beyond their means" as they struggle with £1.12 million of urgent repairs and shrinking congregations.

Heritage buildings officer at the diocese, Andrew Mottram, said he previously had been reluctant to offer more than advice until now, but had been forced to provide a "clear steer".

"I cannot tell them they have to close down - that is for the congregation and church council to decide," he said.

"But what I have done is tell them the way they are running now is not sustainable."

In an open letter sent to all seven churches, Mr Mottram told leaders: "This matter cannot drag on for much longer," and recommended St Edmund's and St John's - which has been boarded up since 2002 over safety fears - should be put on notice of closure within two years.

St James', which needs £515,000 of repair work, should be put on notice of closure within five years, he adds.

Church bosses believe Bottom Church is perfectly situated to attract tourists into the centre of town linking in with plans to revamp Dudley Zoo and Castle.

Council plans for Castle Hill include linking up Dudley Zoo, Black Country Living Museum, Dudley Canal Trust and the planned archives centre into one major tourist hub.

St Edmund's sits opposite one of the planned new entrances at the Fellows pub.

A charity night to aid Charlie

STAFF AT a salon are putting the finishing touches to a charity night honouring a youngster battling leukaemia.

Charlie Harris-Beard, aged 20 months, of Kidderminster, has now returned home from hospital following a lifesaving bone marrow transplant.

When workers at Finishin' Touch hair and beauty salon in Brindley Street, Stourport, heard of his plight they wanted to help. The salon has hosted charity events for the past two years for various causes.

Staff have now decided to support Charlie and his family by donating money raised to help with his treatment.

Cash will be shared with soldiers' charity Help for Heroes. A charity night will be held at Stourport Civic Centre, in New Street, on March 15.

Up-and-coming singers and dance acts are among those performing with doors opening at 6.30pm for a 7pm start.

One of the organisers and salon owner, Tina Button, said: "Everyone was touched when they heard about Charlie."

Adult tickets cost £5 in advance and £7 on the door with children tickets £3 in advance and £5 on the door.

School holding an art exhibition

A STOURBRIDGE school is hosting an art exhibition showing work of their own pupils alongside that of local professionals.

Elmfield Rudolf Steiner School, Love Lane, aims to provide an interesting idea for an exhibition.

The Deputy Mayoress of Dudley is to open the exhibition at an adults-only viewing on March 16 at 7.30pm. The exhibition is also open on Saturday March 17 from 11am-3pm.

Choir centenary will aid hospice

A MALE voice choir will celebrate its centenary with a concert for a Stourbridge hospice.

Money raised will be donated to Mary Stevens Hospice. The concert starts at 7pm with tickets costing £8 from David Cornell on 01384 893067.

Hospice head of fundraising Janet Jones said, it's an incredible achievement to have been around for 100 years.

Tributes to grandfather killed in a car accident

THE WIFE of a Dudley grandfather who died following a car crash in Kingswinford paid tribute to her loving husband who had an "addictive and cheeky" personality.

Geoffrey Harris

Geoffrey Harris, aged 56, of Abberley Road, Lower Gornal, died at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital after being involved in a two-car crash. Mr Harris' wife Valerie said his daughter Kelly had been left distraught by his death. He died just five months before Kelly's wedding.

In a statement Mrs Harris said: "As a loving wife to my husband of 36 years, I am deeply upset and distraught, as are my family in regard to this untimely death and unknown circumstances surrounding the incident that has been thrust upon our family. Geoff, as he was known by us all, was a loving husband, and had an addictive cheeky personality. He was a generous and funny man, and well-liked by all."

"He had recently become grandfather to his only daughter Kelly's first son Jacob, aged eight months, who he doted on."

"My daughter Kelly is distraught at the news of losing her father to such a tragic incident, and now raising Jacob without a grandfather in his life."

"She added Mr Harris would be missed by all of his friends and family including his brothers Peter, Ian and Chris and his sisters Dianne and Anne."

Warrant issued on man

MAGISTRATES have issued a warrant for the arrest of a 21-year-old Colesey man who failed to turn up to face sentencing for driving a vehicle while banned and without insurance. Wayne Philip Ellis, of Flavell Avenue, had admitted the offences at an earlier hearing.

AN URGENT DIY SOS appeal has been made in Brierley Hill for people to help breathe new life into a boarded up community centre.

Brierley Hill group Insight for Carers has taken over the former labour club on Pearson Street with the intention of returning it to community use.

The club been out of use for two years but Insight members have plans to transform the 8,000 square foot site with a new cafe, sensory room, therapy rooms and support centre.

Plasterers, decorators, certified electricians, plumbers and gas fitters, are all being asked to roll up their sleeves and help with the transformation. Fixtures and fit-

Nothing exciting about city status

Thank you Mr Polychronakis for putting your point of view E&S, February in reply to my letter.

I do realise the bid for Dudley covers the whole of the borough.

Let me point out that cities have a central point or major town centre.

The city of Dudley would not have one unless it was the Merry Hill centre.

Let us look at his points which he states the towns it encapsulates Dudley, Stourbridge, Halesowen and Brierley Hill including Merry Hill.

I notice towns that he has left out, as Dudley always has, Coseley and Sedgley which includes the Gornals, as they always have done. What have they done for these areas?

Coseley, pulled down or planning to pull down parts of its history.

Sedgley, built one toilet which only the vandals knew where it is (was).

All in roads into Dudley centre look as though that they are still being rebuilt after the second world war.

What will the city have to offer for interest or entertainment, a cinema at Merry Hill, a cinema at castle gate, Black Country museum which is run by volunteers, the zoo and the castle (which actually belongs to Sedgley). It does have hotels, but there is nothing in the area to give anyone a reason to stay long enough to use the hotels.

I would love for something to make me positive about a city status, but I can't.

I would like Dudley council to put some information out that would make the majority of Dudley residents excited enough to back the bid, instead of empty promises.

Amount of bins is absolute rubbish!

RUBBISH, what utter rubbish!

My father lives in Sandwell and is now a tenant with five plastic bins!

His immediate neighbours are all single occupants so five people now have 25 bins!

Collection day looked like a Swiss Clock. The cuckoo has to be the executive who has created this ridiculous strategy.

Now two collections are made and the community still looks like the armpit of the universe with streets and parks strewn with rubbish. Create jobs for the unemployed, clean streets and waste grounds, put the money into the real community. Packaging is the responsibility of the manufacturers, send them the bins!

Think first before commenting on rent

IN RESPONSE to Eddie Guy's "letter of the day" I feel this man should know all the facts before saying council tenants feel like "lottery winners" just because they have had some much-needed home improvements. Why does he think councils charge rent?

I am a council tenant and pay full rent and to get any repair or improvement done is extremely difficult. For example my front door is over 20 years old and warped allowing a nasty draught into our house.

I have been told it could be two years before it gets replaced. I have a large front window which is only single glazed and again even though the council inspector stated it is no longer fit for purpose it could be two years before it is replaced with double glazing. I work hard and pay £84 per week to the council just to keep a roof over my head. The amount of home improvements I have received back over 20 years is negligible. So Eddie before making ignorant generalising statements just think about things first.

Taking a stand on staying in your seat

CONCERNING the menace of mobile phone usage, in theatres during the performance.

I can put up with that to a certain extent, but what really annoys me is the "stand up culture", which normally starts half way through a performance.

If the folks in front stand up, you finish up looking at some one's backside.

The only way around this is to stand yourself, then the folks behind you are in the same situation I object to paying for a seat only to stand up.

Would it not be useful to rip all the seats out and just stand up, thus the theatre could charge half price for the performance, if those standing up get tired, there could seats were they could sit for a small fee.

Battle over free school travel for autistic boy

THE PARENTS of an autistic boy are locked in a legal battle with Dudley council over who should pay for his to travel to and from school.

Dudley Council offered to pay travel costs for the five-year-old but only if he attended the nearest suitable school to his home.

But that stance was challenged by his parents in 2009 and tribunal judges ruled the council should provide transport to the school his parents feel can best meet his needs – which is about a mile further from their home.

They said the small increase in cost – of £195 for shared and £312 for individual transport – was not unreasonable, given the advantages for the little boy, and was not an “inefficient” use of council funds.

But the council is now challenging that ruling before three of the country's most senior judges at the Court of Appeal in London, with its lawyers saying it was not up to the tribunal to make that decision and that it was wrong in any case.

Court documents revealed the youngster, who cannot be named for legal reasons, has been diagnosed with autism and also has moderate learning difficulties and speech and language impairment.

The council identified the nearer school as being suitable for his needs, and offered to pay for transport. The country's top civil judge, the Master of the Rolls, Lord Neuberger, Lord Justice Richards and Lord Justice Davis reserved giving their judgment on the case to a later date.

Deadlines gone on pile

ENVIRONMENT bosses investigating a 30ft rubbish pile in Brierley Hill admitted they need more time to decide the next course of action. Refuse Derived Fuel Ltd in Moor Street, had been given until the end of February to take action. Now the Environment Agency say all deadlines have been removed.

Matthew Hennessey, who is in Britain's top 12 for “men's artistic gymnastics”, visited Brindley Heath Junior School as part of the national Sport for Schools programme.

The Welsh gymnast, who has won more than 100 gold medals, demonstrated his skills by performing back flips and walking on his hands. He also got the youngsters to each focus on four moves including star jumps and press-ups.

Organiser Ruth Jones said: “The children have had a great time and they have been amazed by what Matthew can do.”

Poppy puts pen to paper for a poem of protest

Poppy Scott with her mother Irene Claridge, aged 94, and the poem penned about the future of New Bradley Hall in Kingswinford

Extract of the poem by Poppy Scott

My mother's name is Irene Claridge and she has lived for 94 years, throughout her life she has experienced love, happiness and tears

Her marriage was blessed to be with a wonderful man, to be a wife, mother and then a gran

Sixty years of marriage then she lost him one day. She had lost her soulmate and did not know what to say

She was lucky to have me, her devoted daughter who loved her and pulled her through, calling to see her at her bungalow every day, missing very few

As time went by she became lonely and not feeling very well, keeping it to herself for a time and then to me she had to tell

She explained that she needed company with no disrespect to the love that I had shown, so I arranged with a social worker for her to visit

New Bradley Hall care home. When we arrived we were welcomed by the staff who were professional and took us to look around

New Bradley Hall is a Dudley Council-run residential home of excellence of which they should be very proud. My mom is so contented and cared for she wants to shout it out loud

But now they want to close this home and she does not think it's very funny

She is so upset and becoming ill but the council says 'don't worry'

They say that they are modernising the service and she has got to move

But that's not what she wants so what are they trying to prove?

So will Dudley Council please listen to what I have to say

And save a very old lady so that she can be happy again one day

A DAUGHTER has made a plea to Dudley Council through poetry to highlight her experience as her mother fights to stay at a closure-threatened Kingswinford care home.

Controversial plans to close New Bradley Hall, off Compton Drive, remain a possibility under a shake-up of care services in Dudley borough.

As campaigners lead the calls for a stay of execution during a consultation, Poppy Scott has poured her emotions into a poem. Her 94-year-old mother Irene Claridge has lived at the care home since 2008. She had moved up to Kingswinford 10 years ago from Droitwich with her husband Wilf to be closer to their family.

But Mr Claridge died two years later and Irene became increasingly reliant on her daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs Scott, a retired secretarial worker aged 70, and husband Mac, 72, have been working with an action group made up of residents, their relatives and supporters to save the home from the axe.

She worked with Mac, who was awarded an MBE in 2000 for services to people with learning disabilities, to write the poem.

It tells the tale of how Mrs Claridge came to live at the home and their feelings if she was told she has to leave.

"We just want people to know how much she loves it at New Bradley Hall and she would be devastated to have to leave," Mrs Scott said. The first of five public meetings during the consultation, held by officials from the charity Age UK Dudley, is on March 7 at Age UK Sedgley's base, in Ecty-more Road, between 2.30pm and 4.30pm.

Plans to build gym on derelict car showroom

PLANS have been lodged to open a gym on a derelict car showroom in an area of Dudley earmarked for a regeneration project.

The pay-as-you-go gym could be built in King Street at the former Fiat and Alfa Romeo dealership.

Dudley Council officials are desperate to redevelop the rundown plot to create an improved gateway into the town. King Street could be fully reopened as a main commuter route under the scheme having been partly converted into a bus lane about five years ago.

A change of use proposal to transform the showroom into a gym with nearby parking spaces has been submitted by Richard Sheldon.

Midland-based agent Delta Planning has worked on the scheme on behalf of the applicant and spokesman David Green said they were looking to secure a lease and planning permission for the site.

He confirmed the premises would be an "express-style" affordable gym but said other areas of the town were also being considered for the new business.

Ward Councillor Malcolm Davis said the King Street area needed a revamp, adding: "Any decent development so long as it is happy to put money into the town would be a good thing." A transport plan looking at the impact of the gym on congestion has been drawn up. It states the "proposed level of parking provision is adequate for the scale of development."

Mystery over dead dog

THE RSPCA is appealing for information after the discovery of a dead dog in a Dudley canal, which had its legs tied. The female Dogue de Bordeaux was pulled from the water at Primrose Bridge, off Cradley Road, Netherton. The dog's legs were tied with electric cable and its head covered by a plastic bag.

Hefty theft of weights

Weightlifter Wayne Russell who has had his weights stolen

A musclemann, who is training for the World's Strongest Man competition, has had £2,500 of weights stolen.

The thieves broke into strongman Wayne Russell's storage container in Dudley.

Around 30 specially-made 66kg iron weights were taken and police believe the thieves would have needed to make several trips to transport them all. Father-of-six Mr Russell, aged 39, of Tipton, said he felt "gutted" after discovering the theft when he turned up for training at the Dell Stadium in Pensnett.

He said police had told him the weights were likely to have been stolen to sell for their scrap value.

Mr Russell, said: "It has interfered with my training because I don't have any weights to use."

The school celebrated a fantastic achievement, being placed in the top 125 of most improved schools nationally

All dressed up and somewhere to go – the end of school prom is always popular with Coseley School students

A typical day in the life of two Year 8 students

A TYPICAL day at Coseley School begins with a delicious cheese and bean toastie for breakfast from the canteen.

We then make our way to our form room where, depending on the day, we discuss topical issues, read, improve on our numeracy or simply catch up with our form tutor.

One of the things we particularly enjoy about lessons is that no two lessons are ever the same.

Our teachers always do their best to consider our likes/dislikes, how we engage with certain activities and topics and what our specific learning needs are. Our teachers are extremely approachable, always willing to give up their own time, lunchtime is often spent at: Chess Club, Buddy Club, English Copyright Club, Science Club or doing sporting activities. We could go on forever – the difficulty for us is choosing which one to go to.

Each day consists of five lessons of an hour each but, as they say, time flies when you're having fun!

And before you know it, the last bell of the day rings – a signal that our jam-packed day at Coseley has come to an end.

Megan and Hannah

Celebrating achievements at school of opportunities

COSELEY School, situated in the heart of its community is proud to be a community school, working hard to enable students and the local community to benefit from the many opportunities on offer.

We are celebrating the success of many of our students this year, in particular four Year 11 dancers will be performing in the opening ceremony of the 2012 Olympics and a year 10 student is celebrating achieving the Dudley Youth Award for bravery and courage.

The school has celebrated yet another fantastic achievement recently being placed in the top 125 of most improved schools nationally (2007-2011).

This achievement reflects the hard work, dedication and commitment from staff, students, parents and governors.

The school maintains its popularity and continues to establish itself among the top 10 per cent of similar schools in the country.

Inspiring

High quality enthusiastic teaching is of paramount importance in improving students' learning and achievements. This, supported by an inspiring and varied curriculum, has resulted in a dramatic rise in our standards.

The quality of relationships between staff and students is a top priority and one of the keys to our continued success.

Students have a positive attitude to learning and are proud of their school. The strong tutor system ensures students receive the appropriate care and guidance – we are extremely proud that at the last Ofsted inspection the school was graded outstanding for its care and guidance of students.

Coseley has strong links with partner primary schools and has worked with a number of them offering enrichment activities and promoting excellent transition to ensure a smooth transfer when students begin school.

Choosing which school to send your child to is one of the most important decisions a parent will face, knowing your child is taught in a safe, caring environment by highly skilled specialist teachers is why many parents choose Coseley for their child.

School planning to build new £300,000 extension

A SCHOOL in Dudley will be given a £300,000 revamp to create extra classrooms and an extension to its dining hall to help cope with a surge in pupil numbers.

Plans have been submitted to Dudley Council for a new teaching block at Sutton School and Specialist College, Scotts Green Close.

Headteacher David Bishop-Rowe said the number of students on the roll had soared from 102 to 162 in the 11 years he had been working at the school. "The aim is to have a teaching block with new work areas.

"At the moment we cannot fit everybody into the school hall to eat their lunch at the same time. We think it's very important that we have room for the pupils to all sit together.

Mr Bishop-Rowe said they hoped to start work on the project "as soon as possible". The building will be constructed on the site of the existing garage and store room which will be demolished.

Mr Bishop-Rowe says in the planning application: "With the increased number of pupils at the school, the needs of the pupils have also changed.

"The school strives to offer new bespoke services on a one-to-one basis with some students as required. This is very difficult at present as the majority of the classroom areas are fully occupied throughout the day. "The teaching block will enable larger pupil groups to be located within it."

Council planners will make a decision on the proposals within the next two months.

Garden restoration talk

HAGLEY Wives and Women's Fellowship members will learn more about the restoration of the English baroque garden at Castle Bromwich Hall, Birmingham on March 13. Jean Draycott will give the talk about the hall at St Saviour's Church, Worcester Road, Hagley at 8pm.

The Dickens you say!

Classic story – Gerald Dickens during his performance at Netherton Arts Centre

Victorian England was brought back to life for hundreds of schoolchildren in Dudley who were given a special talk on the life of Charles Dickens by his great-great-grandson.

Gerald Dickens presented a show to more than 280 children at Netherton Arts Centre. Mr Dickens, aged 48, from Oxford, also performed an edited version of Dickens's classic Nicholas Nickleby.

He has worked as an actor director and producer and travels the country performing live versions of the author's work based on his great-great-grandfather's own live readings in the 1860s.

Mr Dickens, who admits to hating the stories as a schoolboy, said: "The show is very much about his life and how he started."

This year is the 200th anniversary of Charles Dickens' birth.

Recruitment drive to get more retained firefighters

A RECRUITMENT drive for retained firefighters in Worcestershire has been launched.

New recruits are needed at Kidderminster, Stourport and Bewdley in the coming months in roles which pay up to £8,000 a year.

Bosses at Hereford and Worcestershire fire and rescue service say at least 14 positions are available, with the possibility of more, depending on the hours to which people are willing to commit.

However, they insist the recruitment process, was not a cost-cutting exercise to replace employing full-time staff.

Service spokeswoman Julie Wedgbury said the positions were part of an ongoing recruitment drive. Applicants for the jobs need to live or work within five minutes of the fire station, and all recruits must be 18 or over at the date of joining.

Trainee firefighters receive an annual retainer of up to £2,116 plus extra pay for attending 999 calls.

When they are fully trained, they can earn up to £8,000 a year, subject to call-outs.

Successful applicants will be paid £9.66 per hour for attending incidents and training plus £3.70 disturbance payment for each emergency.

Anyone who is interested in finding out more is urged to attend an awareness session. Details of sessions for the Wyre Forest district can be found by visiting the Hereford and Worcester Fire and Rescue Service website at www.hwfire.org.uk.

Hopes on bug rating

RUSSELLS Hall Hospital's risk rating is likely to improve after the number of infections was reduced in recent months, bosses have revealed.

The hospital in Dudley has an amber/red rating by Monitor, the regulator of Foundation Trusts, because of the high number of cases of super-bug C.diff since last April. However, the number of cases has since fallen.

There were just two cases in December and one in January, and chief executive Paula Clark said the risk rating is expected to be reduced to amber/green.

Staff at the hospital have been working to reduce numbers after 99 cases were logged between April and the beginning of December last year.

Ms Clark said: "The recent rating was in response to the high level of clostridium difficile but the conversations that we have had with Monitor and the Care Quality Commission have made sure we have seen sustained improvement and been back on line with our results."

Feedback

"From the feedback we have received, we have high hopes that the recent rating will be reviewed."

She said staff had worked on improving hygiene and reviewing each case to establish whether there was a specific reason for the increase. The hospital has also invested in a hydrogen peroxide machine for deep cleaning.

Regular staff briefings on the superbug are held and the trust has also called upon external experts to give advice and assess whether it is taking the right action to drive down the number of cases.

It originally received the rating due to concerns by the Care Quality Commission that some patients did not receive breakfast or hot drinks.

But although improvements had been made it remained on amber/red because of the high number of C.diff cases.

Police give group £750

A COMMUNITY group in Pensnett has received £750 from the police to start a new youth club.

Fens Pool Voluntary Association was awarded the cash from West Midlands Police Authority's communities initiatives fund.

The money will be used to for the Fens Pool Play Scheme to set up a Friday club aimed at giving youngsters a place to go. It will run at its base in Tennyson Street, Brierley Hill.

Police Authority vice-chairwoman Councillor Judy Foster said: "It is important for young people to have places to go."

Bosses warn of a bleak future for local museum

BOSSES of a museum in Smethwick are warning it is in jeopardy because of dwindling support from volunteers.

Smethwick Heritage Centre - The Museum at the Heart of Smethwick relies almost entirely on volunteers.

But bosses said many were elderly and more were needed to come forward to secure the venue's future.

Museum development manager Chris Sutton said: "Most of our volunteers are in their 70s and 80s and the mathematics are there for everyone to see. We can probably carry on for the next five to 10 years but unless we can attract more volunteers soon I'm sorry to say it will happen, we will have to close."

Imminent

"It's not imminent but it's something we are definitely aware of."

Mr Sutton said they needed around 50 volunteers but currently have just 25. "We regularly have days when we have just two volunteers at the museum and it's not enough," he said.

The museum has struggled to attract visitors in the past year. In the summer it was rebranded to Smethwick Heritage Centre - The Museum at the Heart of Smethwick in a bid to draw in people who did not realise what was in the building.

But although numbers increased initially, the idea has not proven successful long-term with the museum still only averaging about 100 visitors a week. Anyone interested in becoming a volunteer can call 0121 555 7278.

Thriller set in war time

Greg Wilde as Inspector Pratt, Chris Fereday as Lilly Tuthill, Peter May as Colonel Craddock and Becky Randle as Nurse Parsley

MEMBERS of a Brierley Hill drama group are preparing for their next production - a comedy thriller set just before the outbreak of the Second World War.

The Community Players have been rehearsing for the play, called Secondary Cause of Death, since November.

It tells the story of a group of people who gather at Bagshot House for an evening's entertainment in 1939 to re-enact a murder mystery. Group treasurer Mike Harris said: "Everyone is really excited about the show. There is so much hype about being on stage and we love the reaction we get from the audience. It's very rewarding to see it all come together."

The play will be at The Oakfield Centre in Brettell Lane, from March 7 to 10. Tickets cost £6 and £5. For information call 01384 394349.

The boating pool with the house and the bowling green, pictures in 1927

The Birmingham city coat of arms on the bandstand

Lightwoods Park shot in 1927 by Sydney Smith for the Smethwick Photographic Society

The bandstand in Lightwood Park pictured in 1927

Park gives Bearwood its breathing space

ONE of Sandwell's jewels, Lightwoods Park, is a much-loved green lung in heavily built up Bearwood.

The name is thought to describe the lightly wooded nature of the land on which the house was built; no hiding place for bears.

Lightwoods House is an elegant Grade 2 listed building, in a neo-classical style.

A brick set in the walls is inscribed "Jonathan Grundy, June 19th, 1780" and probably indicates the original date of construction.

The house passed through marriage from the Grundy family to the Willett family.

In 1858 it was leased to soap manufacturer George Caleb Adkins, who bought it in 1865.

Bearwood nearly lost its finest building in 1902 when house and park came up for sale and seemed destined to be redeveloped for more streets of terraced housing.

By Richard Slaughter

Alexander Chance of Smethwick Glass Works established a committee which raised £13,000 for their purchase, and then handed them over to the City of Birmingham.

It was only in 2010 that ownership was transferred to Sandwell Council.

In 1915, a garden was laid out with plants named in the works of Shakespeare. It still survives.

The park bandstand is a beautiful example, with fine iron work. The boating pool and bowling green have gone, but are fondly remembered.

The house was used in turn as a library, a café, for recuperating soldiers and by the Sons of Rest.

The renowned stained glass firm Hardmans relocated here from Birmingham in 1971 and remained for over 30 years.

After their departure, the building was boarded up.

Today, the park has Green Flag status and benefits from an active friends group.

A skating rink was installed in Lightwoods Park last Christmas, and was so popular, it will return next December.

Further restoration of house and park is due to be funded by Sandwell Council, the Big Lottery Fund and the Heritage Lottery Fund.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Government must have a plan for bringing more jobs

THE BUDGET is just around the corner and with unemployment showing no sign of falling the Government must show it has a plan for jobs and growth.

One survey stuck in my mind this week. It claimed more than a quarter of the smallest businesses expect to fold within the next two years. It's shocking to think they're letting all that enterprise, talent and hard work fall by the wayside.

The Regional Growth Fund was set up precisely to help these businesses expand and create jobs. Back in the summer I met Lord Heseltine, chairman of the programme's advisory panel to ask him to get behind bids from Black Country businesses.

But with the deadline for the third round of funding approaching, worrying evidence has emerged that the money is not getting through to the firms that need it. I'm pleased firms had their bids approved, but not a single one of the sixteen successful bidders in the West Midlands have so far received their money.

Before boasting about new

Dudley North Labour MP Ian Austin takes the stand in our weekly Chronicle column which gives our local representatives the chance to air their views on issues that matter rounds of the Growth Fund, the Government needs to get a grip. Firms up and down the country need real help now, so Ministers must act to get the money to the hard pressed businesses who have already been waiting months.

But that must be part of a much wider strategy. A real plan for jobs and growth - starting with this month's budget.

The economy grew even less than we thought in 2011 - by just 0.2 per cent compared to the 3 per cent the Government predicted.

However, in the USA, where the Government has taken a more balanced and steady approach to deficit reduction, their economy has more than recovered the output lost in the global recession.

sion. The Government's economic gamble - tax rises and spending cuts is backfiring, badly.

It's brought unemployment to a 17-year high. It has put one million young people on the dole. And it's led to youth unemployment doubling in Dudley in the last year. I remember the 1980s.

Our area still bears the scars of the failed economic policies which put a generation of young people on the dole. Let's not have another generation of lost talent.

That's why it's so important the Government changes course and adopts a plan for jobs and growth.

Blow for pubs campaign
Twenty five pubs a week are going under. In part it's because of the difficult economic conditions. But it's also because of the unfairness of many landlord - tenant contracts.

The big companies, who have an increasingly large market share, are in many cases imposing conditions - on what beer tenants can buy or how much they have to pay in rent - that are making it difficult for pubs to survive. Last month I voted to introduce a code of practice to regulate this relationship and help protect pubs, but it seems the Government will be ignoring the vote.

Police commissioner hustings
In November we'll be voting to elect a Police Commissioner for the West Midlands. It's a big job. And it will have a real impact right across our borough.

There are a number of people vying to be the Labour Party's candidate for West Midlands Police Commissioner; Cllr Bob Jones, Cllr Yvonne Mosquito, Mike Olley. I have arranged a public hustings which all Dudley residents are welcome.

It will take place this Friday March 9 at the Royal British Legion, Ruiton St, Gornal from 6.45pm. Give me a call on 07840 103 198 if you'd like to come.

Quiz date brought forward

WORDSLEY 'M' TOWNSWOMEN

THE February meeting was opened by chairman Barbara Gregory with minutes of the previous meeting prepared by secretary Liz Moseley.

Treasurer Josie Bunn gave a detailed view of last month's accounts, while Liz read out the results of the 'payments by cheque' petition from HQ. The overwhelming outcome was that the use of cheques was still a prime form of payment.

Ann Birchill reminded members of the arts and crafts exhibition at the Water Hall gallery, Birmingham on June 28 and 29 at the same time as the Federation AGM on June 29.

The inter-guild quiz has been brought forward from October to April 30. Tea, cakes and humorous poetry is arranged for May 30 at Wollaston church hall.

The first coffee morning of the spring will be on March 14 at the home of Pat Caddick.

The patchwork quilt on display that Barbara made will be raffled off at the March AGM and there will be a special cake to mark the 10th anniversary of the guild. All proceeds of the raffle will go to guild funds.

The April 16 meeting, starting at 10am, will be an 'open house' where visitors from Wordsley area can come along and see what their local guild has to offer. It will feature humorous and enlightening entertainment by Richard Westcott with 'confessions of a pantomime dame'. Admission is £2.

Ladies take Pepys at Samuel's diary

The diaries of Kenneth Williams and Samuel Pepys were the guest speaker's topic

THE meeting was opened by chairman Doreen Armstrong who welcomed 42 members and eight visitors. She then welcomed our speaker for the day, Mr David Hickman.

After the business reports, Doreen announced a scrabble club would be held on the third Monday of every month at the new Blackheath central library. Any members wishing to join should contact the organiser Doreen Smith.

Treasurer Beryl Hartley read out the balance for the end of the year and said all necessary papers were with the auditor and a balance sheet would be presented at the AGM on March 28 at Moose Hall, from 10.30am.

BLACKHEATH 'M' TOWNSWOMEN

The speaker was introduced and his topic was 'diaries I've enjoyed'. Members also enjoyed the diaries as David read to extracts from the journals of several well known diarists.

They were quite surprised to learn that Mr Samuel Pepys, secretary of the Admiralty, was a rather naughty man with the ladies and didn't mind telling everyone about it, in detail, in his journals. It was in great contrast to the writings of actor, Mr Kenneth Williams, who told of his rather sad and lonely life.

Jubilee tea party planned

K'FORD TG

MINUTES of the previous meeting were duly read, approved and signed and one visitor was welcomed.

Advance warning was given of a sponsored walk in aid of The Princess Royal Trust for Carers. This will be in September, when all guilds in the country hope to amass a cumulative total of 874 miles - the distance from Lands End to John O'Groats.

Federation notices include visit to Wollerton Hall

WILD AT HEART

ITV1, 8.30pm

As the series comes to an end, strange things are happening at Leopard's Den. When aren't they? But with Danny about to leave for the UK, it seems there are signs aplenty urging him to stay. Frogs have seemingly rained down overnight, the giraffe refuses to budge from the front gate and the cheetah has lost its appetite. After all he has been through over there it seems remarkable that he wants to investigate, but Danny jumps at the chance to have one last adventure before his return home — tracking a lioness that attacked a tourist — but it could end in tragedy. Meanwhile, Du Plessis makes an alarming discovery about Ed and Fiona.

It's a quick move to new homes in the Black Country

BOASTING a high specification as standard, with quality fixtures and fittings throughout, new Redrow homes are ideal for those who want a quick move to a brand new home in the Black Country.

The award-winning developer is building homes from its sought-after New Heritage Collection at Heritage Gardens in Tipton and Chestnut Walk in Bilston. Both locations offer a stand-out range of quality built homes, designed and built with pride.

Some of the properties are simply waiting for the finishing touches that help transform a house into a home.

Pauline Turnbull, sales director for Redrow Homes (Midlands), commented: "A visit to our show homes in Tipton and Bilston is a must for Black Country home buyers who will be bowled over by the outstanding quality and value for money we offer. Visitors to both developments continue to be impressed by what we include in our standard specification compared with other homes available in the area.

"A brand new home is the ideal choice for those who want a quick move as unlike an older property you won't have to waste time and money on repairs, renovations and decorating before you can move in."

A three-bedroom Redrow home in Tipton can be purchased for £184,995. Four-bedroom homes at Chestnut Walk are ready to move into, priced from £189,995.

Microwave

They all boast well equipped kitchens with integrated top brand appliances including microwave, oven and fridge freezer plus tall cabinets and extra wide drawers that offer plenty of storage. Bathrooms and en-suites enjoy quality fixtures and fittings with a tile range exclusive to Redrow.

"Our new homes don't just look good, but are practical too. Designed to maximise efficiency and minimise waste, they're well insulated with double glazing and central heating included as standard," Pauline added.

"In fact new homes are 40 per cent more economical in their use of energy than those built only a decade ago, which means that house holders who make a move from old to new should save money on their fuel bills."

With part exchange available, those with a home of their own to sell could find that making the move from old to new is quicker and easier than they expected.

To find out how Redrow could help you move up the property ladder, visit the sales office and show homes at Heritage Gardens in Upper Church Lane, Tipton, or at Chestnut Walk in Dudley Street, Bilston.

For more information about Heritage Gardens call 0121 439 0012 or see the website at www.redrow.co.uk/heritage

Details about homes at Chestnut Walk are available on 01902 219 188 or at www.redrow.co.uk/chestnut

Subaru reveals a list of goodies in 2+2 coupe

The UK-specification Subaru BRZ is set to add generous standard equipment to its already impressive arsenal.

Subaru's new 2+2 coupe has already generated high levels of interest at dealerships, with many customers placing orders before pricing and standard equipment have been announced.

The Japanese brand has now revealed that top-specification models come with 17-inch alloy wheels, a torque-sensing LSD, front, side, curtain and knee airbags, MP3 connectivity, dual-zone climate control and LED daytime running lights.

The driver-focussed BRZ will also come with Subaru's VDC (Vehicle Dynamic Control) and can be fitted with either a six-speed short-shift manual or paddle-operated automatic transmission. A second, lower-spec model will also be made available a little later in the year, as will a third 'stripped out' version, which promises to be the perfect solution for those who wish to tone and fettle the BRZ to their own tastes, as well as track-day enthusiasts.

Perfectly

The BRZ is available in six eye-catching colours all of which suit the car perfectly, including Subaru's trademark WR Blue Mica, Sterling Silver, Satin White, Crystal Black Silica, Dark Grey Metallic and Soe, Beton Bad. The carefully conceived powertrain packaging allows Subaru's celebrated horizontally-opposed 200PS 2.0-litre Boxer engine to be positioned lower than ever before. The 2+2 coupe has the lowest centre of gravity of almost any vehicle, with half the BRZ's mass sitting below knee height. It promises a power-to-weight ratio of 164PS per tonne and this, in conjunction with its advanced lightweight chassis and use of cutting-edge lightweight materials, endows the BRZ with exceptional handling characteristics.

The BRZ will be available with the brand's new three-year Everything Taken Care of (ETCo) aftercare package, which offers a host of benefits worth over £7,000, free-of-charge.

World Speedway Champion Greg Hancock Returning to Cradley Heath

Cradley Heathens legend and current World Speedway Champion Greg Hancock is returning home to where his career started 24 years ago. Fans will have the chance to meet Greg when he opens the new Motor Market car dealership site in Newtown Lane, Cradley Heath on Saturday 17th March at 11:30pm.

Greg made almost 400 appearances for the club, which gave his career a start back in 1989. American Greg crowned a fantastic season last year by becoming World Champion for the 2nd time at the age of 41.

Motor Market co owner Adam Bridge said "It's very exciting for us to be involved in bringing Greg back to Cradley Heath. We know exactly what speedway and Greg mean to the people of Cradley and giving Greg's fans the opportunity to meet and congratulate him in person will be fantastic. It really should be a great day."

To add to the occasion Carol's famous Heathens pork sandwiches and refreshments will be provided free from the original catering van used on the Dudley Wood site. A raffle with prizes including 2 Dudley Heathens season tickets, further special guests and children's entertainment with a bouncy castle and face painting will all be on site.

Greg's rare appearance back in the UK is largely thanks to Colin Pratt his former Heathens boss who brought him to Cradley back in the late 80's. Colin, now in charge at Coventry Bees, has assembled a world class field of top stars, led by Greg to ride in The Brandonapolis Open meeting Friday 16th March at Brandon.

A third opportunity to pay tribute to Greg will be on the evening of Saturday 17th March at The Venue, Dudley from 8.30pm where Greg will take to the stage as the star attraction along with Jan O Pedersen, Colin and other surprise guests in an event organised by the Heathens Supporters Club. Tickets are available at £10 and can be purchased at www.dudleyheathens.co.uk or contact HSSC on 07766 745681.

Motor Markets Dean Bridge added, "It should be a very special weekend for the many people still fanatical about speedway in the area. You only need to attend the British Grand Prix in Cardiff each summer to see the amount of goodwill and support still given to Greg by the Cradley fans, I've no doubt, even today we still regard him as one of our own.

I would doubt whether there's ever been a more popular Speedway World Champion. We could not wish for a better ambassador for the sport or our town. I know the Heathens fans are very proud of him and his achievements and hope they turn out in force to welcome him back to Cradley Heath."

TIPS OF THE WEEK

When starting a building project always use a contract which should include details such as start and completion dates, costs and payment plan. You can download a free contract from the Federation of Master Builders (FMB)

Don't over estimate your abilities when it comes to maintenance and improvement work around the home. Doing jobs around the house yourself could be a false economy as work which is completed to a poor standard can actually reduce the value of your home. Not to mention the cost it could have to your health if something were to go wrong.

The Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK construction industry, <http://www.fmb.org.uk/fab/>.

Robins hit form again on the road

WELLINGTON 1 Dudley Town 3
DUDLEY TOWN enjoyed more success on the road as they bounced back to winning ways with a comfortable 3-1 victory at mid-table Wellington.

The Robins had to come from behind to keep up their fine away record in the West Midlands Premier League which has seen them lose just twice on their travels since mid September.

Andy Burgess was still without Lithuanian forward Martynas Normantas who remained on the injury list along with long term absentees Luke Morton and Ross Love while Ben Store's ankle injury meant the striker started the game on the bench.

This lead to a start for the Chris Whittaker along with recent signing from Lye Town Brett McGilligan.

It was the visitors who got off to the stronger start as they attempted to bounce back from last Saturday's 2-1 defeat at Wolverhampton Casuals with Dreniz Bala and Rob Whitley both going close.

But, with their first attack of the game the Herefordshire outfit went ahead after 11 minutes when Aaron Morgan beat James Jevreval from eight yards.

Wellington were unlucky not to add to their tally. Matt Williams took advantage of a slip by Whittaker but could only to sky his shot.

Dudley pressed and Danny Ludlow's shot shaved the wrong side of the post.

But The Robins were level when a smart move between Rion Francis-Mills and Anthony Cox saw the former turn the ball past Dan Tecza.

Dudley got off to the perfect start in the second half. A through ball from Nikki Faux put Dreniz Bala clear and The Robins' top-scorer added to his impressive tally for the season.

Things got even better for the visitors on 54 minutes. A fine cross from Francis-Mills found an unmarked Faux and the former Black Country Rangers forward made no mistake.

The Robins should have extended their lead. Francis-Mills having the best chance when he fired wide after being put through by Dreniz Bala. Then Bala should have done better after being picked out by Ben Store.

There was still time for Wellington to have the ball in the net again, although Dale Withers' effort was ruled out for offside.

Promotion challenge still on for firsts

Old Halesonians 6-2 Droitwich
OLD Hales 1sts eased to another victory against league strugglers Droitwich.

Following points being docked from Old Silhillians, Old Hales' promotion push is still alive, as they move into the last two games of the season.

The game started at a high pace, and Droitwich held their own for the first 10 minutes as Hales struggled to break down their defensive line. Both teams had chances, but were unable to find the target. Old Halesonians soon started to dominate as they passed the ball around well. The breakthrough came from striker Graham Knight who found the net in spectacular fashion as he volleyed home at the back post, after a winding run from man of the match Josh Randhawa.

Hales' second came when Mark Curzon scored from a penalty corner. However Droitwich hit back almost immediately to reduce the deficit after a deflected shot wrong footed Hales' goalkeeper James Jones.

At 2-1, Hales picked up their game again and increased their lead with a goal from Tom Durnford. Before the break, Hales made it 4-1 when Harry Hughes was the fourth name on the scoresheet, firing in from close range after he rounded the Droitwich keeper.

The second period saw Hales dominate possession but struggle to capitalise on their chances. Tom Bulteel was able to continue his scoring form, as he scored Hales' fifth. Droitwich did not give up, and after an innocuous challenge, Hales defender Ben Hughes was shown a green card. Droitwich were able to score again from the resulting penalty corner to make it 5-2. As the game reached its conclusion Harry Hughes grabbed his second of the game to make it 6-2.

Khalsa 4 Old Halesonians 0
Old Halesonians 2nd XI were out-classed by table-topping Khalsa at St Nicholas Park.

The away side, looking to build for next season with neither promotion nor relegation a possibility, fielded a changed side which saw some of the club's bright youngsters given the chance to step up to a much quicker pace than what they are normally used to. The side started nervously, and the cause was not helped when captain Steve Charlton let in a soft goal from a short corner within the opening few minutes. Hales struggled for rhythm and soon found themselves two down.

Hales' struggle continued in the second half, but a much more spirited effort saw them keep Khalsa to just another two goals, with many players settling down into the game.

Hales now face four fixtures before the end of the season, three of them at home, starting with a double-header next weekend against Finchfield and Stratford.

Bewdley back with a victory

Malvern 2 Bewdley 4
AFTER nearly three months of seeing little or no action, Bewdley made light of their recent inactivity to claim the West Midlands Premier League spoils at Malvern.

Bewdley's lack of games was more than evident in the first half as they failed to get any sort of rhythm to their game with Malvern capitalising to lead 1-0 at the break. The second half was a completely different story as Bewdley dominated possession.

They were rewarded when top scorer Ollie Smith equalised but parity lasted just five minutes with Malvern edging back in front.

Bewdley then made a couple of changes with Dan Gittens and Josh Gaunt coming into the midfield, and from a Gittens corner, Richard Costello headed them level.

Bewdley then kicked on and were well on top of the game and their dominance paid off when further goals from strikers Chris Hough and Richard Burgess sealed the points.

Tuesday's game at Darlaston was called off when the hosts couldn't raise a side.

K-ford are undone by late strike

Bromsgrove 3 Kingswinford 2
KINGSWINFORM hockey first team slumped to another defeat to a strong Bromsgrove XI.

With only pride to play for, Kingswinford put in a poor effort in the first half.

Bromsgrove, on the other hand, were purposeful and determined in every attack and were 1-0 to the good midway through.

Just before the stroke of half-time Kingswinford won a short corner. Surjit Takhar forced a fine save from the Bromsgrove keeper and Cole Hickman slotted home the rebound to make it 1-1.

Kingswinford raised their game in the second half and there was a vast improvement in effort.

But it was Bromsgrove who took the lead again. Kingswinford hit back to level through Chris Brown.

Bromsgrove, though, scored the winning goal in the last minute of the match to take three points.

Kingswinford's man of the match was Ed Parkes.

Aston hopes his Euro mission reaps reward

DUDLEY'S Ryan Aston will be looking to prove that his preparation has been 'poles apart' from Lee Noble when they fight in Sheffield.

Aston has been in Poland this week to spar with Grzegorz Proksa, the reigning European middleweight champion. Both now move on to compete on the Matchroom bill at the Motorpoint Arena on Saturday March 17, live on Sky Sports.

Proksa defends his title against Kerry Hope while Aston has a six-rounder with Noble, a former English title challenger.

Aston, like both Proksa and Hope, is a southpaw and his heavy hitting is considered ideal preparation for the champion.

And "Tank" insists he will use the high level of training to overwhelm Noble when they climb into the ring on fight night.

He said: "No one is underestimated when I fight them, I just predict the outcome. He's been there, so it will be a good test."

"I am not too worried about Lee Noble, I am more bothered about training, with the European champion and fighting Lee Noble is a big difference."

"I know if my training is right, my diet is right and my mind is right, I am going to win. There are no ifs, buts or maybes with me."

"If everything is right, I am on the money and it's done. Losers lose, winners always win."

The 20-year-old believes he will come on leaps and bounds by going through the motions with the European title holder at his weight.

By Craig Birch

He said: "It's all different styles and tactics as well, how he wins fights isn't necessarily the way that I would win fights."

"The hard work, for me, is done at the gym, it's all about training at this stage of my career and performing is performing."

"You have to try things in sparring to get better and, if you are sparring with someone better, it's going to bring you on."

Meanwhile, Aston's stable-mate Tommy Ghent has pulled out of his fight in Birmingham with a back injury.

The undefeated welterweight from Colesey will not compete on the Dave Coldwell-promoted bill at the New Bingley Hall next Friday night as planned.

The 19-year-old had been due in action a month after clocking his third professional win on the Prizefighter bill at Wolverhampton Civic Hall.

But Ghent has pulled a muscle in his back.

Getting ready for fight night – Dudley puncher Ryan Aston has spent this week in Poland sparring with European middleweight champion Grzegorz Proksa and being put through his paces by trainer Paul Gough (left)

Souvenir brochure for Greg's return

DUDLEY HEATHENS are producing a real collectors item to mark Greg Hancock's return to where it all started.

The reigning world champion, who launched his career with the old Cradley club at Dudley Wood back in 1989, will make a rare appearance in the area on Saturday, March 17.

He is guest of honour at The Venue Conference and Banqueting Centre, High Street, Dudley where hundreds of fans will pay tribute to the 41-year-old.

And a special souvenir programme featuring articles, statistics and over 100 pictures from throughout his career, will be available on the night.

Heathens chairman Nigel Pearson said: "The interest in this event has been massive and we are so excited about seeing Greg back in the area where it all started."

"The brochure is a must for all Greg Hancock fans, we have worked closely with Jeff Davies to gather pictures and there are some fantastic images from the early Cradley days."

"It's a real collectors item and a great souvenir of Greg's visit."

Sports are too slick for Bustleholme

Dudley Sports 3 Bustleholme 0
DUDLEY SPORTS turned on the style as they eased to a comfortable victory over Bustleholme in the West Midlands League Premier Division.

There was an early blow for Bustleholme when Steffan Chilton fell awkwardly and was taken to hospital, with a suspected broken wrist.

Sports took the lead on the half hour, Craig Tibbets nodding home ahead of goalkeeper Matt Martin.

A minute before half-time, Sports doubled their lead, Matthew Hearsey capitalising on more defensive uncertainty.

In the second-half, Bustleholme were denied on numerous occasions by an excellent display from Dudley keeper Sam Pearson.

Then Josh Taylor timed his run to perfection and duly rounded Martin to put the game out of Bustleholme's reach.

Meanwhile, Tidvale drew another blank in a 2-0 defeat at Kirby Muxloe.

Pratt to keep tabs on Heathens' progress

FORMER Cradley boss Colin Pratt will have extra reason to follow Heathens' progress this season.

Netherton-based Pratt, who also rode for the club in 1970, is in charge of Coventry and Bees asset Adam Roynon will lead the Heathens as skipper and No.1 in the new campaign.

Heathens launch their season on Tuesday, April 3, against Stoke at Monmore in the Staffs Cup.

Said Pratt: "Adam is a very good rider and we all know the bad luck he's had throughout his career with injuries, he's had more than his fair share.

Dudley Heathens

"I'll get across to Wolverhampton as much as I can to see him riding for Dudley and obviously he will figure in the Coventry team at times during the season."

"It would be nice for Heathens fans to see their team have a good season and the whole Dudley project can only continue to raise the profile. I know things are going on behind the scenes which might take some time but as long as the team are on track and in the headlines it keeps the flag flying.

"I wish them well for the coming season. Once again I will follow their results with interests."

"I still live within close proximity to the old stadium and have many friends from the old Cradley days."

Pratt will be one of the guests at a special evening to celebrate former Cradley star Greg Hancock's world title success next week. Hancock will be honoured on Saturday, March 17, at the Conference Venue and Banqueting Suite on Dudley High Street.

The special evening has already sold more than 300 tickets and fans are urged to book quickly.

Tickets can be bought online at www.dudleyheathens.com or by sending a cheque payable to HSSC, 2 Caernarvon Way, Dudley, West Midlands, DY1 2TR. For more details, contact HSSC on 07766 745681.

Martin is the hero as Gornal run riot

Gornal 7 Bromyard 1
GORNAL found their scoring touch as they hit a magnificent seven against Bromyard, with Calum Martin netting a hat-trick.

The hosts showed their intent with some early pressure with Richard Young seeing his shot well saved by the keeper.

Gornal were given time and space on the ball as they controlled possession and took the lead on 22 minutes.

A Robin Keates cross found Martin who neatly flicked the ball on to Mark Swann. He took it on his chest and shot into the bottom corner.

The second goal came seven minutes later. A deep cross from Young was met by Martin, who headed the ball back over the keeper and in off the far post.

The lively Martin who made it 3-0 on 35 minutes. A through ball from Lee Wherton found Swann and his first-time pass allowed the striker to evade the offside trap and slot home.

It took only 10 minutes of the second half for Gornal to extend their lead after a crossfield ball from Keates found Young. He cut inside a defender and hit a left-foot shot high into the far corner of the net.

Martin completed his hat-trick on 65 minutes with an easy finish from a Young cross.

Bromyard scored a consolation goal from the penalty spot following a Chris Waterhouse handball.

On 73 minutes substitute Seb Craven continued the scoring. He received a pass from Darren Leonard, attacked the defence and shot into the far corner to make it 6-1.

Craven scored his second of the game on 87 minutes, with a free header following a Young corner.

ALL GUNS BLAZING FOR DK'S REVENGE

Dudley Kingswinford 73 Scunthorpe 10
DUDLEY KINGSWINFORD turned on the power as they gained sweet revenge for a defeat at Scunthorpe in October.

DK were up for the clash after they lost narrowly, 37-34, at Heslam Park in a game they felt they really could and should have won and were determined to avenge that setback. For many DK fans this was as good a performance as any over the past decade.

Scunthorpe have always provided stern opposition and despite the scoreline this was a competitive game.

The visitors have one of the league's strongest packs and they won their fair share of ball and competed with commendable commitment for the full 80 minutes.

But the home cover defence was high on impregnable under pressure.

DK produced brilliant handling and passing that led to regular scintillating passages of attacking play.

They were clinically ruthless in punishing the opposition's tiniest of error.

DK scored 11 tries, five from the forwards and six by the backs, and conceded one.

Jon Higgins kicked an impressive nine conversions from 11.

Higgins returned at fly half with Gareth Bown moving into the centre replacing Tom Weaver.

Simon Fletcher replaced Nick Adams at full back and Dan Shakespeare started at tight head prop, with Stefan Thorp taking a turn on the bench.

Scunthorpe centre Karl Clayton missed a second minute penalty but slotted another on five minutes for the Greens to lead for the only time in the game 0-3.

DK quickly replied with a

Dudley Kingswinford

flowing move culminating with a long pass from Higgins to Matt Farrington who scored in the corner.

A second try followed after big breaks from Stefan Shillingford and Simon Fletcher. Jordan Brookes darted over from a ruck 5 metres out.

Green's hooker Gareth Mist was sinbinned for blatant offside.

A couple of untidy scrums followed and from a third DK No 8 Jon Tideswell picked up and drove for the line and Pete Knight was on hand to pick up and crash over for one of the two tries Higgins did not convert.

Scunthorpe might have scored on 23 minutes but a great try saving tackle from Jordan Brookes disposed of the Green's winger when he was over the line.

DK's fourth, bonus point try after 25 minutes was simply brilliant. Higgins somehow picked a difficult ball up off his bootlaces to feed Bown, who swiftly moved the ball to Fletcher.

He broke forward, drew his man and put Duncan Chance into space 60 metres out. It was no contest as DK's paceman flew to the posts for a great score.

Then No 8 Jon Tideswell

Dudley Kingswinford No.8 Jon Tideswell touches down for a try as the free-scoring hosts run riot against Scunthorpe burst over from a 5 metre scrum before Scunthorpe pulled back a converted try.

Eight minutes into the second half Luke Greenwood drove over for a try and was then driven over from a line-out.

A huge break from Shillingford saw him hand on to Fletcher, who, under great pressure tap passed brilliantly into the hands of Farrington arriving at pace to score a classic try.

If anything, DK's ninth try was even better. Jon Tideswell picked up from the base to feed Brookes who broke blind on the touchline, passed inside to Duncan
